

CALENDAR ALERT

WHAT:

Weekend of "flighted" competition amongst Hawaii's amateur golfers. The event will be held from November 6 to 7, 2004 at Turtle Bay Resort's Arnold Palmer Course and George Fazio Course. The entry fee is $165.00 and includes participation in the event, lunch for both days as well as tee gifts.

The 2003 Turtle Bay Amateur saw John Mathias edge out John Bascuk in a sudden death play-off in the Championship Division.

Turtle Bay Resort is the ideal place to stay and compete amongst the top amateurs in the state vying for Governor's Cup points or for the weekend golfer who wants to experience competitive golf. A special room rate of $159 per room night is offered to the event participants.

An awards luncheon will be held immediately following the final round. Players will compete for $2,000 in gift certificates as well as prizes. There is also a $100 gift certificate for the golfer who wins the Closest To The Pin contest each day.

Located on the North Shore of Oahu, the 880-acre Turtle Bay Resort recently completed a $60 million renovation project that involved new greens and facility improvements to both courses, including a restored back nine on the Fazio course. Turtle Bay now offers a completely re-modeled pro shop, a scenic clubhouse restaurant, and a new, world-class practice facility located near the Palmer Course.

WHO:

The event is open to golfers with handicap affiliated with the USGA, HSGA, or HJGA. Entry forms are available at Turtle Bay Resort Golf Club. Entry deadline is October 29, 2004. Flights will be limited to the first 52 amateurs per flight. To register, please contact the Golf Shop at (808) 293-8574

HOW:

The champion of each flight will be the player with the lowest 36-hole gross score.
