Romance in The Beach Cottages at Turtle Bay Resort Included in the extensive upgrades was the renovation of The Beach Cottages at Turtle Bay Resort, 42 beachfront cottages, elegantly appointed private oases with lanais facing the ocean. The Cottages comprise 42 suites—all with prime oceanfront views-- that reflect the creative hand of renowned Los Angeles designer Michael Smith. Grouped in clusters of six, each cottage underwent $150,000 in renovation work to bring them to the highest standard of a luxury experience.

The Cottages are handsomely dressed in imperial yellow with copper flashing and rain caches on the outside. Upon entry, the polished Brazilian walnut floors lead to a large, multi-level beach retreat with 15-foot ceilings and king poster beds. A wet-bar, refrigerator, teak chairs and lanai with large glass doors overlook the Pacific sands.
