Turtle Bay Resort to Host 2006 Nike Junior Golf Camp

NORTH SHORE, OAHU, HI (June 5, 2006) – Turtle Bay Resort, one of the most spectacular golf settings in Hawaii, will serve as the site of the 2006 Nike Junior Golf Camp from June 28 to July 2. Camp is open to junior golfers ages 10 to 18.

The golf school is offered to overnight or day campers. Mornings are spent in small group instruction at Turtle Bay Resort's world-class practice facility. Instruction will focus on all aspects of the golf game including full swing, pitching, putting and bunker play. In the afternoon, campers will practice their newly acquired skills on one of the resort's championship golf courses.

The cost for overnight campers is $1,100, which includes golf instruction, housing in a Turtle Bay Resort ocean view guest room, and all meals. Additionally, overnight campers can participate in other staff-supervised activities including swimming, night golf, guest speakers and video analysis. For day only campers the cost is $700, which includes golf instruction and lunch.

For information on enrolling, call Turtle Bay Golf at (808) 293-8574.

PGA Professionals, Larry Keil and Kevin Carll, serve as camp co-directors.

- Keil is currently the Head Professional for the resort's Arnold Palmer Course and is a Class A PGA member. He was the 2000 and 2003 Junior Golf Leader for the Aloha Section PGA.
- Carll is currently the Head Professional for the resort's George Fazio Course and is a Class A PGA member. He has competed in the PGA Tour's Sony Open in Hawaii and is a multiple winner of numerous Aloha Section Tournaments.

Turtle Bay Resort offers two championship courses – The Arnold Palmer Course and The George Fazio Course – that are nestled among 880 acres of beaches, ironwood trees and unspoiled wetlands on Oahu's legendary North Shore. Hawaii's perfect weather provides excellent year-round conditions.

The resort hosts one of the premier stops on the PGA Champions Tour schedule, the Turtle Bay Championship. Turtle Bay's Palmer Course is also the site of the LPGA SBS Open. Golf Digest consistently rates it one of the top courses in Hawaii.

Located on the North Shore of Oahu, Turtle Bay Resort is operated by Benchmark Hospitality International and is a Preferred Hotels® & Resorts Worldwide property – a collection of the world's finest independent luxury hotels.

Famous for world-class surfing, pristine white sand beaches, and its charming country setting, the North Shore also offers colorful cultural attractions, innovative ecological endeavors, and environmental adventures.
